32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

7 November 2021

First Reading 1 Kgs 17:10-16
A reading from the first book of the Kings.

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives', she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145:7-10. R.v.2
(R.) Praise the Lord, my soul.

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord who sets prisoners free. (R.)

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord who protects the stranger. (R.)

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 9:24-28
A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf.

And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 12:38-44
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

REFLECTION
by Fr Michael Tate

The Widow's Mite

This is the most commonly misunderstood passage in the Gospels. It is usually read in a 'pat on the back' tone of voice, commending the widow for her generosity. But it should be read with the tone of white hot anger which Jesus had displayed against the money dealers whom he expelled from the temple only days earlier.

This vulnerable widow was exploited and brainwashed by the scribes and temple authorities so that she gave 'all she had to live on'. She was left destitute, unable to afford the necessities of life.

On the contrary, Jesus wanted to create a band of followers who would look after widows and orphans. Look at Acts 4:32-37 to see that in operation. In fact, deacons were created in the early Church precisely to care for non-Jewish widows.

The message for the Church from this Gospel story is that it must never exploit the religious fervour of the poor to build up its own resources. Pope Francis is emphasising that the flow must be the other way if we are to be authentic Christians.

We could pause a moment to pray that, imitating the earliest Christian communities, our parish practises true concern for the marginalised and vulnerable, ensuring that they have all the necessities of life in all its dimensions.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Let my prayer come into your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.

Weekly Notices

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

We welcome visitors from all faith communities to our Parish Mass. If you are new members of our Parish, we ask that you take a Welcome Pack from the back of the church, complete and return the Member forms and one of our welcoming team will contact you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians, the Wonnarua people, who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SURVIVORS OF ABUSE

We acknowledge the lifelong trauma of abuse victims, survivors and their families, the failures of the Catholic Church to protect, believe and respond justly to children and vulnerable adults, and the consequent breach of trust.

Solomon Okovido - Ordination to Diaconate

Bishop William Wright has announced that Bishop Brian Mascord (Diocese of Wollongong) will preside at the Diaconate Ordination of Solomon Okovido on Saturday 4 December 2021 at 10.30am in Singleton.

It is understandable that everyone would love to be a part of Solomon's special day, however, with restrictions of 1 person per 2m² which will be in place for Places of Worship at the time of the Ordination, St Patrick's Church only allows for 160 people to attend.

Those wishing to attend will need to register via Sticky Tickets at <https://www.stickytickets.com.au/SGY20> If you have issues accessing the internet or securing a ticket, please call the office.

Please keep Solomon in your prayers as he prepares for his Ordination.

All Soul's Month

During the month of November we give thanks for saints, both dead and living, and remember our deceased relatives, friends and those who have no one to pray for them.

Envelopes are available at the back of each church to offer Masses for the faithful departed during All Soul's Month. Please place the envelopes in the offertory collection baskets at the back of the church. Family names will be printed in the bulletin.

2021 World Mission Appeal

Please return your APPEAL ENVELOPES today by placing in the offertory collection basket at the back of the church.

For information about leaving a bequest to Catholic Mission go to <https://www.catholicmission.org.au/get-involved/bequest-legacy>

Senior Singles Lunch

The Singleton Senior Singles group will meet for their monthly lunch on Tuesday 9 November at 12pm in the Albion Hotel Restaurant. New members encouraged and welcome.

St Patrick's Women's Guild

The next meeting of the Women's Guild will be held on Wednesday 10 November 2021 at the home of Nola Holz at 17 Hallett Place Darlington. The meeting will commence at 1.30pm. All are welcome, we would love to see you there. To keep our Guild members safe please ensure you are double vaccinated.

Catholic Weekly

Due to declining readership in our parishes, copies of the Catholic Weekly will no longer be provided to our Parish churches from the beginning of 2022.

St Brigid's Caritas Luncheon

All welcome to join us for lunch at the Royal Federal Hotel Brantxon on Friday 12 November at 12 noon. Please have names to Helen by Tuesday 9 November by phoning 49381467. Our Christmas Luncheon will be on Friday 10 December. More details later.

Prayers for HSC Students

Please keep the year 12 students of our parishes in your prayers as they commence their HSC exams this week.

Dear God,

*we ask your Holy Spirit to guide the students who will be sitting their HSC exams.
Give them the understanding and knowledge that comes only from you.*

Grant them favour and bring the information that they have studied to mind that is needed for each exam they take.

Bless each student, in Jesus, name we pray.

Amen
